dent to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Beach occasioned by the death of Justice Clifford, is one of the ablest and most distinguished jurists in New England, distinguished jurists in New England, and Mr. Arthur has honored himself no less than Judge Gray by this judicious selection.

Massachusetts has 1,950 miles of railroad, with an area of 7,800 square miles; on mile of road for each four square miles of territory. Belgium has one mile of railroad to each 4.24; England and Wales, one to 4.64; New Jersey, one to 4.89, and Pennsylvania one to 7.36. Kansas has one mile of road to about twenty-four square mites of territory.

Sountryman unused to the ways of the town cannot, to wit:—While on the jury I was approached by an outsider and threatened with the terror of denunciastion publicly in the Mgws if I did not bring in a verdict of guilty. As this threat was carried out so closely afterwards, the query as to whether this "whipper in" was a paid special employe of the Ngws, and a sort of an auxiliary to the hired testimony of the professional witnesses in use against the defendant in this case becomes pertinent. The similarity of their ethics and general style would indicate such a state of facts. Both seemed to be "inspired by Deity" to remove stubborn but conscientious jurors. But let us grant, for the ing of the Friends now in session in New York City have urged the importcome to encourage and fit the young Quakers to enter the professions, engage in scientific pursuits, and so make the society's influence felt "in every avenue of lite" politics not accepted.

Dear of such a case as the one in question, and their "opinion" as celebrated jurists and their their had of protection the United States offers to be society's influence felt "in every avenue of lite" politics not accepted.

The St. Louis Dispatch says that, as and their "opinion" as celebrated jurists and their "opinion" as celebrated jur tion. One of them said the time had of lite," politics not accepted.

the stone floor of the Grafton court house veribule is the word "Justice" in large letters. An old resident who had just lost a sulf was walking out of the building, sadly and with eyes cast down. S-eing the letters in the floor, he halted uncovered his head, and spoke: "Justice, I knew you was dead, but I did't know where you were buried until now." The public were just beginning to cherish the sweet hope that the Guiteau tion for their insunuations against Des Moines, but is convalescent and trial was drawing to a close when it is need by the defense in the case. If, as the average respect of an upright citizen, loveth he chasteneth." there seems to be minators of unoffending private citizens. no longer any room for misgiving re- I ask the public to note their action in garding the affection and tender solicithat vindication from the lying asper-sions of characterless scribblers that I tude of Providence toward the American

New York Tribune: The efforts o the Democratic statesmen to wrestle with the question of presidential inabil ity are not impressive. The subject is the question of Democratic inability. They have been contemplating and studying that for a good many years now and they ought to understand it

The Carson, Nevada, Appeal assert t at not one in a hundred of the pioneer of that state has $500 that he can call his own. The wealthy men of the state 1865. The bonanza mines are exhausted. carried off their money to New York to tains, and a lot of corrupt politicians who sell senatorships and other offices to the highest bidders.

Vennor annnounces that a polar wave may be expected in Washington about December 28. Only one short year ago such a prediction would have chilled but the Canadian prophet is now universally recognized as a member in tic band of unsuccessful guessers. At eced in being always wrong, and people began to feel much satisfaction in de pending upon the precise reverse of his every prediction. But he has been right in a few instances of late, confidence has been again destroyed, and his prog-

Virginia having set the example, Geory government and the state centralizamade to bring about a union upon the basis of opposition to the Bourbon Dehas expressed his opinion that a liberal policy can be carried out in North Carolina as it has been in Virginia, and is working to that end. It is apparent that noring all established rules of jurispruservices at the Presbyterian church in dence. To quote the language of Topeka, Dr. McCabe tendered his res- the article in which the disagreement of gnation as paster of that church, a post- the jury was noted, we regarded a simple years. The reverend gentleman's friends clent to stimulate public sentiment all over Kansas, and they can be counted against such methods to defeat the law. by the thousand, will regret to learn and spared comment where it was mannim out of Kansas. The doctor, by the Saylors even dictated the communication a theory in recording that, on a certain showing in his address, has been an ef- that appears over his name, or that the occasion, "silence reigned in heaven for structing the committee on civil service ficient pastor, and the belief in his pu- thought of its publication originated the space of an hour." ficient pastor, and the belief in his purity and consistency as a christian is universal. His ability has given him the front rank among the ministry in the state, and he has been very useful in promoting the highest interests of the people. His resignation is a surprise, be disturbed by the "insinuations" of a high time for Carter Harrison to take and will meet with universal regret. We "characteriess scribbler" or the evil sus- some steps for the reformation of his trust he may be prevailed uyon to with- picions of "a breed of moral bastards" is "bride" or, that it has made no investment in his from the control of the political future, and that it holds itself for a professional career, he political future, and that it holds itself for a professional career, he ready to cheerfully approve what it has it his passion, been in the effect that he is passion, been in the office of the political future, and the state of t demagogues, and in this case will assist EDITORS NEWS: In the case of the the reader in determining the identity tate vs. Staack, tried at the recent term of the author of such attenuated clap-

SAYLORS (?) IN PRINT.

be only that of a "clod-hopping farmer." I ask the editors of THE NEWS, in fair-

Very respectfully yours.

The foregoing effusion is given space

the editor. Under the rules which terize in THE NEWS as the "cowardice

born of a mean and cunning purpose,"

has, in obedience to his craven instincts

it might be held responsible for," de-moustrates at once his valor and con sistency by skulking behind a mask

which we challenge him to lay aside

that the public may judge of the base

the action of Saylors and Carter in that though much ingenious sophistry has a question which we will not assume the of the District court, you take occasion trap. to use very harsh language toward me for my action as a juror therein. I could not fairly complain, nor have I Saylors' proxy has relieved himself any disposition to, of honest criticism of the accuracy of the secure of any index. the accuracy or inaccuracy of my judgment as a juror in that case. But it seems that the methods which mark the Stasck case will not fail to impress the manliness and courage of convictions would not serve the uses of villification; and with the cowardice born of a mean and cunning purpose you resort deliberately to insinuation and slander. I am

Alt time post paid for its advance is at the wind strong purpose you resort deliber to the strong purpose you will be purpose and the strong purpose you resort deliber to the purpose adduced by us, actually to see the would term "inspiration," it is asserted that he arrived at a verdict by "such purpose you might be the deap provided the temp punity, perhaps, and yet I would enter the punity, perhaps and yet I would enter the punity perhaps and yet I was a treat on the strong have been visiting Mrs. Garfield at Cleveence he does not fear, but respectable and responsible people everywhere can understand them. They can also understand this incident, perhaps, which a countryman unused to the ways of the The Springfield (Ohio) Republic "wouldn't be surprised" if Keifer were torney general, is a bigger man than duced by Senator Edmunds during the

The late Colonel Formations is afflicted with such a poverty of intellectual resources that the EMPORIA News office monopolizes all the judicial ability and brains that can be brought to be ar on such a case as the one in question, and their iterials. The late Colonel Forney's weekly paper, Progress, will be continued under the editorial management of his son. Old Simon Cameron is going to spend the winter in Mexico. Is this the kind hold an opinion in conflict with theirs, and adhere to it? I say that this is the head and front of my sinning in the case referred to, and I challenge any one in this county to show any different state of facts. I have lived in this county for sixteen years. I have always lived in peace with my neighbors, and have paid my debts, and conducted myself generally as honorably as the average man, I trust and believe. At least, I always endeavored to do so, and to leave to my children the heritage of a name they need not be ashamed of, though it be only that of a "clod-hopping farmer."

Mr. Frelinghuysen has lived in New Jersey all his life, he has naturally a fine appreciation of foreign affairs.

We wonder if Old Hickory's bones didn't rattle in his coffin when Pendleton made his onslaught on the spoils system in the senate the other day.

Mills, the sculptor, has made a plaster cast of Guiteau's head and face. It should be assigned the most commanding position in the rogues' gallery, at New York.

New York.

ness to a man maliciously abused by them, to show any reasonable foundsto produce any testimony of the record of my will be able to make speeches ere long. withheld until after the festivities of the

and if they cannot do this to stand forth confessed blackguards and wanton calu-minators of unoffending private citizens. Mrs. Keifer, the speaker's wife, is a tall and graceful woman, and and amiable, sensible and excellent wife and sons and a daughter. She will now re- punishable by a fine not main with her husband in Washington, which city she has hitherto only occaaionally visited. in our columns at the request of Mr. I.

The intended bride of Prince Leo-E. Lambert, by whom it was handed to pold, of England, is described as being "German all over"-large-footed, flatis passionately fond of music, and perhaps, later on, she may be brought to turned or committed to the waste-basket, love "poedry and painding." as it is contrary to newspaper ethics to publish communications which are not Chicago Inter-Ocean: Guiteau said: signed by the true author or at least ac- "May it please your honor, the American companied by his name as a pledge of people do not desire that this case shall good faith. But that the bubbling pas- be tried again." There is not a sane man sions of Mr. Saylors (?) may find free in America who could have said it better. atonement may be made by THE NEWS can people. They demand no new trial, for any unjust strictures which it may but an execution.

gentleman whose phenomenal sensitive. to marry Miss Frelinghuysen, daughter ness apparently leads him to resent a truthful statement of his action as a ously inaccurate. If Mr. Arthur had fully make an exception in this instance, al to assume that a gentleman who eningenuous scribbler who swells joys his reputation for sagacity would notwithstanding the fact that the with such virtuous indignation view to bringing his mother-in-law to

It seems the Jersey whisky is quite up to gratify a spirit of petty, personal to the standard proof this season. We malice against this paper; and, while see by the papers that a new and unaccusing The News of "not having the named sea-serpent has been discovered courage to assert fairly and openly what in that state.

By virtue of the law's delay the coun try will be balked of the pleasure of seeing a corpse about the size of the assassin placed in Guiteau's stockings on motives that stimulated the copious flow The St. Louis Globe-Democrat predicts of vituperation which is the conspicuthe conviction of Guiteau within the present week. We wish the record of Mr. Saylors, we have but to say that THE NEWS, in its treatment of the Stanck case, simply exercised proceeding. This paper does not enter- that a peculiar fatality has characterized tain the conviction that the sets of a the year 1881, is founded upon somejuror are sacred against criticism, thing more tenable than a mere popular courts of justice by effulgent exponents of Northern Michigan, a large number liquor interest to establish such a post- having died out of the tribe located near tion. THE NEWs stated that the finding Northport. There seems to be some exof Saylors was in direct conflict with tenuating features even to that loaththe testimony in the Staack case, and left some disease. the public to judge of the motives which Frelinghuysen is already posing as the forth the expediency of organizing handsomest man at Washington. It class of supernumerary secretaries of seems strange that there must be always some point of rivalry between myself and the Minister of State."-R. Conkling.

During the last hundred years eighteen theaters have been destroyed by fire durnal, in presenting the facts and reflecting ing their occupancy by audiences, inthe almost unanimous sentiment of this volving loss of life ranging from ten to community in its judgment regarding one thousand.

ed, in a recent sermon, that four-fifths ifestly so unnecessary. Assuming that men. The Bible fiatly contradicts such promoting the highest interests of the or that of his polished defender should $34 per capita. It would seem that it is 8.c

The Topeka Capital, in reply to an editorial paragraph in the Atchison Patriot, which says that the former paper is supposed to know more about Governor St. John's intentions than any other Journal, takes occasion to say that it is John's intentions to say that it is John's intentions than any other Journal, takes occasion to say that it is signature to the enrolled bill giving Kingwood (West Va.,) Argus: "My wife, Nsomi A. Hine, has left me again—thanks to Almighty God for relief! Anybody that brings her back, I will indication of Saylors, feels so deeply for the reputation of his friend. Although obviously master of a refinement of expression and the fixture of its signature to the enrolled bill giving the franking privilege to Mrs. Garfield. Sension Blair introduced a bill to protect the enrolled bill giving the franking privilege to Mrs. Garfield. Sension Blair introduced a bill to protect pension money from attachment, levy or seizure by process of law.

The following advertisement, signed by Frank Hine, tinner, appears in the Kingwood (West Va.,) Argus: "My wife, Nsomi A. Hine, has left me again—thanks to Almighty God for relief! Anybody that brings her back, I will indicate the fixture of its signature to the enrolled bill giving the franking privilege to Mrs. Garfield. Sension money from attachment, levy or seizure by process of law.

The following advertisement, signed by Frank Hine, tinner, appears in the Kingwood (West Va.,) Argus: "My wife, Nsomi A. Hine, has left me again—thanks to Almighty God for relief! Anybody that brings her back, I will indicate the fixture of the fixture of the fixture of the province of determining."

The following advertisement, signed by Frank Hine, tinner, appears in the Kingwood (West Va.,) Argus: "My wife, Nsomi A. Hine, has left me again—thanks to Almighty God for relief! Sension money from attachment, levy or seizure by process of law.

The following advertisement, signed by Frank Hine, tinner, appears in the Kingwood (West Va.,) Argus: "My wife, Nsomi A. Hine, has l not the "personal organ" of the govern. viously master of a refinement of expres- good for any contracts made by her,

A FRESH CALAMITY.

The Statement Made that Phrenological Experts Are to Be Introduced in the Guiteau Case.

The Trial of the Assassin Resumed-Gui teau's Mouth Flowing with Accustomed Exuberance.

Three Years.

McKee, Carlisle, Morrison and Spear, of Georgia.

Banking and currency—Carpo, of Massachusetts, chairman; Smith, of Illinois, Weber, Dingley, Moore, Cornell, Brumm, Buckner, Hardinburgh, Flower, Ernmentrout.

Appropriations—Hiscock, of New York to certain points. Guiteau's attention back to certain points. Guiteau saveoutive department.

Three Years.

McKee, Carlisle, Morrison and Spear, of Georgia.

Banking and currency—Carpo, of Massachusetts, chairman; Smith, of Illinois, Weber, Dingley, Moore, Cornell, Brumm, Buckner, Hardinburgh, Flower, Ernmentrout.

Appropriations—Hiscock, of New York to mornell, Brumm, Buckner, Hardinburgh, Flower, Ernmentrout.

Appropriations—Hiscock, of New York to mornell, Brumm, Buckner, Hardinburgh, Flower, Enlison, of Louisiana.

Cox, Atkins, Farney, Le Fevre, Ellison, of Louisiana.

Guiteau's Phiz—A Matrix Taken for a Plas-amending the laws in relation to reve-nue duties. Beferred. Senator Sherman, in connection with the same matter, submitted a resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to communicate any information in the treasury department respecting the organization of a special court for the trial of customs cases, or for transferring such uses to the court of claims; and also his opinion upon the expediency of such measure. Adopted.

By Senator Hoar, to fix a day for the meeting of the electors for president and vice-president; to provide and regulate the counting of votes for the same, and decisions in questions arising thereon. The bill is identical with that introlast congress. Referred.

At the expiration of the morning hou the subject of presidential succession came up, and Senator Jones, of Florida, resumed the argument. He held that under the constitution there was no such a thing as temporary ability. He asserted emphatically that when once the vice president entered the presidential office under such a serious inability as to justify that step, he holds After a short executive session the sen

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 .- On motion of McKinley the senate bill granting the franking privilege to Lucretia R. Garfield was passed. The call of states was resumed and the following bills were in-By Richardson to apply the proceeds of sales of public lands to educational purposes.

The call was interrupted to allow the oath of office to be administered to Deuster, of Wisconsin, and was immedi-Gen. Weaver, the national Greenback-er, has been sick for several weeks at tobacco in the hands of producers; also justice—Willitts, of Michigan. to reduce the tax on manufactured tobacco.

By House, to extend the provisions of under the special act of congress; also By Whitthorn, to declare certain acts willful disregard or violation of any of the statutes of the United States by any able, sensible and excellent wife and officer, agent or employe of the gov-mother. She has four children—three ernment shall be a high misdemeanor, nor more than $10,000 and imprisonment By Simonton, to abolish duties on Refo diana. mplements, and to reduce the duty on all other dutyable articles ten per cent., ewelry and silk, on which the duty shall be increased twenty per cent.; also to Connecticut. repeal the arrears of the pensions act.

By McMullan—To levy and collect income tax; also, to make the trade dollar legal tender.

By Reagan—To regulate a inter state commerce; also, to allow the pur-chase and register of foreign built ships pay certain southern mail contractors. By Culberson—To repeal the tax on the anufacture and sale of tobacco and

By Mills-Concerning capital and erwise infamous crimes Bills were also introduced to provide for a drawback of 10 per cent on all goods hereafter imported by American built ships, owned exclusively by citizens of the United States. To abolish the report tax on tobacco.

the Union as States.

A bill was passed which observed the following Monday.

The Utah delegate case was postponed till January 10th.
Mr. Haskell called up the resolution providing that the rules of the forty.

sixth congress shall be the rules of present house. Adopted. protection of the person of the Presi-lent of the United States. It provides for punishment by death of a person who assaults with intent to kill the presbe shown that the assailant was irre-sponsible at the time of the assault, he insane. Referred. By Springer-Amending the laws rellevees. Springer's object is to place the port on all measures to carry on the issippi River Improvement Commis-ern counties; transmitting a communi-

Charles D. Sigsbee, of the United States

Navy, to accept a decoration from the report by bill or otherwise. Adopted. The chair announced the fixture of ternal revenue shall be appointed for a

Adjourned till Wednesday

President, and providing for contesting By Anderson-For the appointment of a special committee on transportation routes to the seaboard.

The Speaker laid before the House a ting a communication from the secreta-Louis & San Francisco Railroad Com-ous diseases pany for the right of way across the nine years. transmitting a report of the secretary of cation in the present system of counsel jurisdiction of the United States in west dieton, from the committee on foreign relations, reported adversely on the bill near as may be by the service rendered and the responsibilities imposed, and that said committee shall have leave to The following advertisement, signed good for any contracts made by ner, now and forever. Amen!"

The public confession of the assessin's brother, to the effect that he is a firm be liever in the "science" of phenology is popularly regarded as a ingenious device on his part to strengthen the theory set up by the defense of hereditary "erankiness" in the Guiteau family. It is a crafty dodge, but, unfortunately for is a crafty dodge, but, unfortunately for is a crafty dodge, but, unfortunately for in the Guiteau family. It is a crafty dodge, but, unfortunately for is a crafty dodge, but, unfortunately for in the Guiteau family. It is a crafty dodge, but, unfortunately for it is a crafty dodge,

Washington, Dec. 21.-The speaker

Pacific railroads-Hazleton, of Wis-con, chairman; Harrison, Camp, Robin-son, Hammond, Darrell, Farwell, of Iowa, McKenzie, Bliss, House and The chairmen of the other committees are as follows: Elections—Calkins, of Indiana. Judiciary—Reed, of Maine. Coinage, weights and measures—Fish

, of Pennyivania. Commerce—Page, of California. Agriculture—Valentine, of Nebraska. Foreign affairs—Williams, of Wiscon-Military affairs—Henderson of Illi Naval affairs-Harris, of Massachu Post offices and post roads—Bingham, of Pennsylvania.

Public lands—Powell, of Wisconsin.
Indian affairs—Haskell, of Kansas.
Territory—Burrows, of Michigan.
Rallways and canals—Campbell, of ennsylvania.

Mines and mining—Van Voorhees, of New York.
Public buildings and grounds—Shel lenberger, of Pennsylvania.

Mississippi levees—Thomas, of Ill-Education and labor -Updegraff, o

Militia-Strait, of Minnesota. Patents-Young, of Ohio. Invalid pensions-Brown, of Indiana Pensions-Marshall, of Illinois Claims—Crowley, of New York. War claims—Hauk, of Tennessee. Public expenditures—Randall, Private land claims-Pacheco, of Cal fornia.

District of Columbia—Neal, of Ohio.
Revision of laws—McKinley, of Ohio. Expenditures in the department -Deering, of Iowa. Expenditures in the treasury depart nent-Belford, of Colorado. Expenditures in the war departn Briggs, of New Hampshire.
Expenditures in the navy depaRobeson, of New Jersey. Expenditures in the postoffice d ment—Cannon, of Illinois. Expenditures in the interior department—Hubbell, of Michigan.

Expenditures on public buildings-Rules-The speaker. Joint committee on library-McCook, of New York. Laws respecting the election of Pres

Payment of pensions and back pay-Joyce, of Vermont.
Additional accommodations for public ibrary-Erie, of Massachusetts.

Gulteau's Divorced Wife WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15 .- Mrs Anna J. Dunmore (Guiteau's divorced Several ladies arose to leave the courtoom; Guiteau moved uneasily upon audience, cried out: "There won't be fexico and Washington Territories into he Union as States.

New her character ripped up as it will be. Corkhill ought to be ashamed of himself. self. He is worse than a hog. I appeal A bill was passed which provides to the court to intercept this infamous ahead and see what is going to come that in the District of Cotumbia, when a legal holiday falls on Sunday it shall be kick him out. I made Arthur presidence of the court to intercept this infamous ahead and see what is going to come from the questions I ask the witnesses. Almost always when I lay the foundations of the court to intercept this infamous ahead and see what is going to come from the questions I ask the witnesses.

Very much to the surprise of every reply to the last question: "I never saw any signs of insanity in the prisoner when I lived with him as his wife," sat-Guiteau, with a sigh of relief, said to Corkhill: "Thank you, Mr. Corkhill, for the sake of her children. This is the nost decent thing you have done in this trial. I expect, however, that Judge Porter and Davidge insisted on it, and Then, turning impatiently to Scoville -"Now, cut this short, and let's have

The cross-examination of Mrs. Dun-As she left the stand Guiteau shouted "I have not seen this lady for eight years. So far as I know, she is a hightoned christian lady, and I have nothing against her. I wish her well in what-

Dr. F. B. Loring, who is in charge the eye and ear infirmary at Washington, made an examination of Guiteau eves soon after his arrest, and did no brain.

Dr. A. McLean, of Hamilton, N. Y. tion of the Chicago, Texas & Mexican Central Railroad Company and the St. had made diseases of the mind and nerve ous diseases a special study for the past nine years. Witness had made three examinations of the prisoner at the jail, and had also closely scrutinized him in court since the 28th of November, when cal conformation of the prisoner's head cation from the secretary of state setting or face, nor any physical peculiarities o ate measurement that the prisoner had a symmetrical and exceedingly well shaped head. The witness found no ex-ternal evidence of any mental or physistock in this head business. (Striking the table and flashing his eyes upon the witness.) You study up in spirituology instead of phrenology and you will learn something. It is the spirit that gets into the brain and behind it that actuates the man." The witness was then asked: "What is your opinion upon the prisoners's santhough eccentric; fully able to distinguish between right and wrong and real ize the consequences."

Guiteau (with an air of solemn ser ousness)—"With all respect to this court and jury, this kind of examination don't amount to a snap. 'Was free agency destroyed?' That is the question for this jury to decide. If I swear that my moral agency was destroyed, how is this prosecution going to prove that it was not? That's the short and sharp of it, and that is all there is in this case." and that is all there is in this case.' Pending the cross-examination of this sale of lands of the Miami Indians in tified to by the clerk of the court as re-At the expiration of the morning hour the senate resumed consideration of Hoar's resolution for a committee on woman suffrage and Morgan addressed Hoar's resolution for a committee on woman suffrage and Morgan addressed the senate. At the conclusion of his remarks the doors closed for executive always been a christian man." Scoville desired to note an exception to the admission of the evidence Guiteau whimpered, with impatience lives a strictly virtuous life for six years

Guiteau's Phiz-A Matrix Taken for a Plas ter Cast of the Assasin.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Clark Mills, the celebrated sculptor, visited the jail yesterday, accompanied by his son Thomas, the young sculptor, and made a life mask or matrix of the assassing from which a plaster cast will be made The artists were accompanied by Mr ohn W. Guiteau, a brother of the as-not appear so well without it. He par-ticularly objected because, as he said, it would make his nose appear so much longer. To this Mr. Mills suggested that a large nose was a sign of strength of character, whereupon Gaiteau with little formula of characters whereupon gaite and firmula of the courtary.

But self-esteem and firmula of the courtary of state, Washington, little formula of the courtary of state of the United States at St. Petersburg: little further hesitancy, consented. The jail barber being absent, a colored prisoner was brought down and

IT WAS SOON OFF. His hair being quite short it was not Cut shorter. A closely fitting scull-cap of cotton, moistened, was put on his head, covering all of the hair, coming down across the torchead. As this dried it drew closer to the head and in a few moments fitted as tighily as the scalp itself, showing the precise shape of the skull, showing every prominence or lack. This was then covered with a coating of the state o This was then covered with a coating of plaster paris, for the purpose, which, in a few minutes, had set. Another preparation of plaster was then made use of in taking the matrix or made use of in taking the matrix or made use of the features. It was so temper-is sane or insane.'

"What are the more prominent organs COULD BE PLACED ON THE SKIN without injury. It was spread on his face an inch thick, leaving the nostrils open. After it had set the whole mold was removed, and the interior was found to be a perfect representation of face and head, showing every peculiarity of the skull and features. This will be used the skull and features the skull and features the skull and features. This will be used the skull and features the skull and features the skull and features the skull and fea as a mold in which to cast the head and cast, was the wild, staring look in his features for a plaster bust of the subject.
It is intended for use by students and other persons of the assassin's head and "Do you find in your practice that features.

THE REMOVAL OF GUITEAU'S has a firm, rather broad chin, lips rathpearance, when brought into court to acter, owing, as I said, to the great pre-tors that Neil Brown, late reading clerk dominance of his 'firmness' and "self- of the house of representatives be rise, as the events of the day are known o very few people here.

ournment of court to-day he received a few visitors and wrote and read alternately during the afternoon. Now that the novelty has worn off he rather likes his made especially for the purpose, and indicating the distance from the ear to the ure is due to the complimentary allusion made as to his improved looks. As oom remarks were loudly made about is clerical, sprightly appearance, and he is said to have enjoyed them hugely. With his wiry beard and scrubby moustache Guiteau had a wild look, but now that these have been removed his face is

THE ASSASSIN'S HEAD.

witness was questioned length relative to less direction of inquiries.

Scoville (smiling)—"Well, gentlemen

Scoville held in his hand he continued

lackson and he thinks I am a greater man than Jackson was. He found one

The prisoner then branched off to the

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.-McKinley

from the memorial committee reported on the subject of irresistible pressure

told you I did not know much abou

KEEN IN EXPRESSION. The lips, which are rather thin, close face now conveys the impression of an intelligent, shrewd man, uncommonly vain and conceited. The people who thought him crazy when he wore his any smut in this examination and the ladies need not go out. They have no hesitation in declaring that his face unless Corkhill wants to stir up filth. I son in the crowd. He expresses great say it is an outrage on decency for Cork. sympathy for the bereaved juror, and is hill to drag this lady in here and have should be hurried squinst him. During the argument on person so offending, the crime shall be navious that the case should be hurried squinst him.

SCOVILLE SAID OF GUITEAU,
"He does not seem to be able to look dent and I have a right to demand that he shall put some reputable lawyer in the place of this infamous Corkhill." tion for contradicting witnesses he does positive injury to his case, and spoils the whole thing by pestering the witness am com Davidge-"That is precisely what I whole thing by pestering the witness right there, and putting him on his am coming to."
Guiteau—"You are on the right track, guard. The other day I had some information about the witness Shaw, which led me to have him summoned great length relative to again. Guiteau told it all, and so put operations of the mind and the signifi-Shaw on his guard, as he knew just what cance of dreams and unconscious exintended to ask him about." THE WITNESS, SHAW. cesses. The counsel for the prosect protested against the apparently object-witness who testified to hearing Cuiteau swer to a summons from Scoville. Sco-WHAT THE DIVORCED WIFE SAID.

In reference to Mrs. Dunmore he says

the said at the time

about it. I think and read, and I can do better than you, judging by the way you are laboring." Looking over notes which are laboring. York, that she thought she ought to remain with Guiteau as she believed he not in your hand writing. I guess was insane and needed a wife to care for must have been by some crank. him. The witnesses upon these points Guiteau appeared to be dissatisfied will be placed on the stand when the Craniology—The Assassin as Viewed a better man for you than this one. He From a Phrenological Stand-Point. Washington, Dec. 20 .- The Guiteau lays. John W. Guiteau is said to be a cast of the assassin's head produced in apon by prominent phrenologists. The from students of phrenology and otners of heads, as determinative of the human character. One man writes to Corkhill that his head has been frequently mea ured, and found

Garfield, late president of the United States, having occurred during the recess The prisoner's brother called upo see a cast of Guitcau's head but the request was refused, on the ground that siring to manifest their sensibility on occasion of this public bereavement, it was not ready for exhibition. The cast was taken for a phoan attractive feature in his reception room. It is understood that Clark Mills and his son will be subposed by the defense to bring the cast into court and examined as to the points of difference

NEWS FROM THE BLOCKADE.

sale of lands of the Miami Indians in Kansas.

Johnston, from the committee on claims, reported adversely the bill to authorize the President to make necessary arrangements to carry into effect any convention between the United States and Nicaragua for the adjustment of claims which may be concluded between the two governments. Indefinitely post-poned.

The House resolution for adjournment from to-morrow until January 5th was matter of business between us. I committee goods are the best wearing Jeans mate; warranged at 1000.

These goods are the best wearing Jeans mate; warranged at 1000.

These goods are the best wearing Jeans mate; warranged at 1000.

These goods are the best wearing Jeans mate; warranged at 1000.

These goods are the best wearing Jeans mate; warranged at 1000.

The House resolution for adjournment from to-morrow until January 5th was matter of business between us. I committee of the court as required by the clerk of the court as required by the clerk of the court as required by the defendant. The House resolution for adjournment from to-morrow until January 5th was matter of business between us. I committee of the solid this season. We will have to carry them over to next the work of the work of the work of the clerk of the court as required by the defendant. Guiteau in referring to the work of the mater of business between us. I committee adulty said: "This work is the clerk of the court as required by the defendant of the papers as originals in the case. The papers as originals in

Five pieces of Kennebec Striped Union Flann. . . be sacrificed at 15 cents per yard.

Splendid wearing material, and generally sold at 20 to 25 cents per yard. also Eleven pieces all wool, fine Flannel Dress Goods--Newest Shades--at 38 cents per yard Seven pieces heavy Union Jeans—heavy as Humboldt—to be closed out at 32 cents per yard.

These are precisely the same as we have been selling at 39 cents. Five pieces of Union Cassimere-Finish Jeans at New York cost--19 cents per yard.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The speaker has announced the appointment of House committees as follows: The committee as follows: The committee on ways and means is constituted as follows: Kelley, of Pennsylvania, chairman; Kasron, Dunnell, McKinley, Hubbell, Haskell, Rossell, Evrett, Randall, McKee, Carlisle, Morrison and Spear, of Cercisie, Morrison and Spear, of Cerc

Forty-two pieces of dark plaid and striped winter Ginghams at 11 cents per yard. Four pieces of heavy Check Cassimere at 60 cents; the same as have been selling at 75 cents;

And four pieces heavy plaid Ulster Cloth at 45 cents—regular price 65 cents; and five pieces plaid, fancy silk mixed Waterproof at $1.20, same as usually retailed at $1.50. Twelve heavy diagonal, full plush-trimmed Dolmans at $11.75.

Precisely the same as advertised heretofore at $14.00; 19 beaver Cloaks from $5.25 to $10.00; the same as we have been selling at $6.00 to $13.00.

Thirteen heavy Shawls, 15 per cent. less than former prices.

There will be no direct profit to us on the above, but we believe it better policy to get the money out of them than to keep them in stock till next winter. Come see the bargains. Sawyer's One Price Cash Dry Goods House.

148 Commercial Street, opposite the Postoffice.

O. F. SAWYER, Prop.

John W. Guiteau, a brother of the assassin. Guiteau was in his cell looking over the morning papers when they arrived and on being informed of the desire of the artists he readily consented. He was conducted to his large cell, one which he terms his parlor, and preparations were made to begin the work. Mr. Mills suggested that GUITEAU'S BEARDSHOULD BE SHAVEDOFF, because a much better representation of the factures and general shape of the face could be made in that way. To this he

Mills suggested that GUITEAU'S BEARD SHOULD BE SHAVEDOFF, because a much better representation of the features and general shape of the face could be made in that way. To this he at first demurred, saying he did not like
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and that he did
to part with his beard, and the part with his he did
to part with his beard, and the part with his he did to part with his beard, and the part wi Survivors of the Jeanette. Secretary of state Frelinghuysen re > of necessity constitute insanity?"

> "Oh, no; but when a man has more D. C.: The Jeanette was crushed in the ice than his share it makes enemies through June 11th in latitude 77 degrees, longi life and unless he has a large front head, tude 157 degrees. The crew embarked it is no good reasoning with such a man. in three boats, which were separated by

> > (Signed) In response to the above the fellow DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 20, 1881. To Hoffman, Charge d' Affairs, Petersburg:

POSTMASTER GENERAL HOWE.

Postmaster General Howe is no ex-"Do you find in your practice that phrenological diognosis of men agrees with their character?"

Postmaster General Howe is no expected to enter upon the duties of his office until after New Year's day REPUBLICAN CAUCUS WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 .- The Republ How about Guiteau's veneration?" "It is about average, but it would have afternoon in regard to the proposition no intention of taking a cast in bronze of the senate's assignment of of the head. Neither himself nor his Clerk Shobeck to duty as acting secre-father wished to figure in the trial, but sassin's head, taken with an instrument ocratic officers, and the caucus adjournmade especially for the purpose, and ined without reaching any decision.

CAMERON'S BILL. The bill introduced by request, in the senate to-day, by Senator Cameron, to provide a construction fund for the navy, is a copy of the bill which passed ated by the proceeds of conden

The Presidential Protection Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 .- The followion of the person of the Pres WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21 .- The Washington, Guiteau trial was resumed again this morning, and Dr. Hamilton, of New York, took the stand. Scoville desired body shall be held and deemed to be an act of treason against the United States, against him. During the argument on this point Davidge was interrupted by Guiteau, who said: "I will cut this punishable by death.
SEC. 2. That any attack upon the pershort, Judge, by saying I am perfectly son of the President of the United States, willing to have them here. I want them with intent to commit injury, shall be to learn all they can. I have so much held to be, and deemed a misdemeanor, confidence in their honor and integrity and the party offending shall, upon trial that—" — nor more than —, and be imponed for a period of not less thannor more than — years.

SECTION 3—If any party making an States, shall on trial be found not responsible for his act by reason of his moral condition or other cause, shall be being preached by Archbishop Ryan. I liable to the penalties enumerated in A large number of prominent people persons so offending shall be imprison-ed during his natural life, or until such person is completely restored to a condi-New York, Dec. 17.—Some rather Schenudler, the 14th of August, 1879, sensational developments have come to light in the investigation into the affairs sweet heart, Annie Lewis. Both men of the broken Mechanic's bank of New-ark. Legal steps have just been taken to prevent Baldwin from conveying cer-tain real estate and personal property held by him. The bill filed in the case says that the private account of Oscar $2,000,000 in one year, and that for ten 000 a year. It also says that a special expert has discovered that Baldwin miswhole of the deficiency had been swallowed up by business transactions with the firm of Nugent & Company, speculations. The bill further says that these transactions and the funds abstracted were used in the interest of The dore

Cabinet Matters—Senate Confirmation

F. Baldwin, who carried on an extensive

Washington Dec. 20 ... It is stated on deposit to cover margins. All this occurred while Baldwin was drawing a occurred while Baldwin was drawing a No questions of importance were consalary of $3,500 a year, and had no other sidered. Secretary Lincoln will spend of congress, and the two houses of con-gress sharing in the general grief, and deress will assemble in the hall of the Fugitives from Justice. examined as to the points of difference with relation to Guiteau's sound mind and attainments, as Mills and his son both

PROFESS FAITH IN PHRENOLOGY, strengthened by the practice of their art.

A reporter called to-day to get their views on this phase of the case. Mills, senior, was not found, but his son talked freely upon the subject, declaring he freely upon the subject, declaring he beld the same opinion as his father about Guiteau's head although the latter could guite and the two houses there assembled, an address on the life and character of Jas.

A. Garfield, late President of the united by the pronounced by Hon. James G. Blaine and that the president protem of the senate exchanged these horses. Before they left they exchanged these horses. Before they left they exchanged these horses for five others at a ranche. They also made them cook supper and feed the horses. Before they left they exchanged these horses for five others at a ranche. They had a fight last night at mand speaker of the house of representatives be requested to invite the Presidents of the United States; the heads of the several departments; the judges of the supreme court; the representatives of foreign governance.

States the two houses there assembled, an address on the life and character of Jas.

A. Garfield, late President of the United States. Before they left they exchanged these horses. Before they left they also made them cook supper and feed the horses. Before they left they also made them cook supper and feed the horses. Before they left they also made them cook supper and the took five horses.

St. Paria, O., Dec. 19.—Fire yester-day destroyed Kizer & Lang's flouring mill, shout 8 p. m., they came upon be meight as took five horses.

They also made them cook supper and feed the horses. Before they left they exchanged these horses for five others at a ranche. They had a fight last night, about 8 p. m., they came upon mill, Rracken & McMaran's grain ware cook supper and the they house of the last night, about 8 p. m., they ca

AN ELEGANT LINE OF

GENTLEMENS' EMBROIDERED SLIPPERS!

AND A CHOICE SELECTION OF

LADIES' LACE NECKWEAR,

For the Holiday Trade.

ing made to raise the saloon license to $500, which will add $1,500,000 to the Foreign Findings-News by Cable. JOHN LUDWIG DEAD. NDON, Dec. 21 - John Ludwig Krapf.

George, a citizen of the United States. Ladies' Land League, Tuesday. senate, now practically vacant by reason | porter, on leaving the premises with a Kilainham jail other meeting at Dublin, at which ef forts will be made to carry the resolution o confer the freedom of the city on Par nell and Dillon against all obstructions.

> an agitator of '48, was fired at but with out result, while returning from valuing farms at Glandari, county Cork. LOST STEAMER DISCOVERED. General Avoutchine, governor-general of Eastern Siberia, who has just arrived here, brought news that a steamer of the North American Polar expedition, discovered and assistance rendered her

SUPPOSED TO BE THE JEANNETTE.

house to-day, by Mr. Hawk, of Illinois:

Be it enacted, etc., That any attack with a deadly weapon upon the person the governor-general of Eastern Siberia of the discovery of a steamer in the Arctic seas, refers to the Jeannette. The dispatch adds that the crew have suffer TERRIBLE DISASTER. LONDON, Dec. 20 .- Thirty-four person were killed and thirty-six injured by an explosion in a coal mine at Bolton. DUBLIN, Dec. 20.—The lord-lieutenant high-sheriff of Dublin, for 1882. St. Louis, Dec. 19 .- Maj. Henry Turner, was buried at Calvary cemetery this morning. The funeral services were A large number of prominent people were present, among them General Sher-man of the U.S. A., who came out from Washington especially to attend the services, he having been a life-long and very intimate friend of the deceased.

The supreme court affirmed the sen tences in the cases of Barber and Ward. The former killed Lizzie Frederica will be executed, January 13th.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 .- A special the Western Associated Press says the report is started here that President Arour is engaged to be married to Miss Frelinghuysen, daughter of the Secretary of State, and the wedding will take s denied by good authority The President will spend the Christ. ad return Saturday, the 31st inst first reception will be held at the White House Monday, January 2d, on which

net were present at the meeting to-day an expense of $25.000 which was paid by The senate confirmed ex-Senator Howe postmaster general and Judge Baldwin, who used the bank funds to Gray associate justice of the supreme to Gray associate justice of the sunicourt; also Thomas C. Acton Un

St. Paris, O., Dec. 19.—Fire yester-iay destroyed Kizer & Lang's flouring mill, Bracken & McMaran's grain ware house and the stable of the Panhandle feely upon the subject, declaring be beld the same opinion as his father about Gitteau's head, although the latter could go more into the details.

"Speaking from a physiological point of view," said Mills, "Guiteau is unital of the navy and such officers and off. His beard and mustache gave him a wild, haggard appearance."

"Bose he seem to look more intelligent with a clean-shaven face?"

"Bose he seem to look more intelligent with a clean-shaven face?"

"Bose he seem to look more intelligent with a clean-shaven face?"

"Bose he seem to look more intelligent with its firmly closed lips indicates great frames."

"Bain and the expression of his mouth with its firmly closed lips indicates great frames."

"Have you made a special study of phrenology?"

"Have you made a special study of phrenology?"

"Mall Navyis.

Washington Notes.

"Mall Navyis.

Washington Notes.

"Mall Navyis.

Washington Notes.

Washington Not

An Unfortunate Lady. Сикласо, Dec. 17 — A special from Springfield, Illinois, says that Mrs. Lincom writes to her friends that she has completely lost the use of her eyes. Her letters are written by an attendant. new trouble or how serious it is likely to prove. She has been accustomed to sit alone in a dark room, which may have weakened her eyes, although they never tailed her before. She says as to DETROIT, Dec. 19 .- Deputy Sheriff Amos Forbes, of Roscommon county, in the northern part of the state, was shot and killed, on Saturday, by a man namoring to arrest. lived unhappily together, and even came her infiderities. She swore out a peace warrant against him, which the officer

Washington, Dec. 16 .- The extreme ilver men are in consultation among soon present some legislation of a very silver. The bill introduced to-day by Senator Plumb is in accordance with the views of this class of congressmen and provides for the issue of silver cer the deposit of silver bullion at any of

Payne's Plans WICHITA, KAS., Dec. 16 .- Oklahoma matters in this city are booming under advice of Capt. Payne. His followers are now scattered throughout the Indian territory, but will all assemble January 1 at the town site of Oklahoma City, where a territorial government will be ernment of the new territory of Oklahoma. It is estimated that 4,000 people will join Payne January 1. No trouble is feared from federal troops. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The Presithe senate: Pierre C. Vanwick, of New be collector of customs at Chicago; Alonzo I. Edgerton, of Minnesots, to be Chief Justice of the Territory of Dakota; Samuel A. Bagley, to be postmaster at La Porte, Indiana. Another Baldwin. NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 21.—Another inancial fraud has just been revealed. Frederick A. Palmer, auditor of the ity accounts, has surrendered himself and was imprisoned on his own con-fession that he has embezzled about $125,000 of city funds in the past three years and lost it in Wall Street specula-

Fast Horse Dead-Steammer Burn Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 21.—The well-known trotter, Red Cloud, with a record of 2:18, died at the stable of hir wner, James Wade, of Edinsburg. The steamer Jno. A. Hoskins burned vesterday at Evansville, Indiana, at the Washington, Dec. 19 —The senate ommittee on naval affairs decided to Director Walmouth to be Paymaster General and all other contested nominstions until after the holidays. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 19 .- The enate judiciary committee unanimous ly agreed to report back the name of Benj. H. Brewster, for attorney general, Boston, Dec. 19.-The comptroller has officially notified the directors of the Pacific bank that an assessment of Benyon, of the Pacific bank, is reported to be dying with paralysis of the brain.

GREENCASTLE, IND., Dec. 19 .- Benwas shot and beaten to death by his two ard of of Frizpatrick, who shot and killed officer Morton surrendered himself to Inspector Byrnes this morning.

A prominent citizen of Ottumwa, Iowa, who was confined to his bed with distressing kidney disease, says he owes his recovery to the use of California Kidney Tea. It is the best kidney remedy known. 50 cents buys a large package. Try it and you will get relief. Sent postpaid by S. B. Higley & Co., sole agents, Fairfield, Iowa, or hay it of B. Wheldon & Co.